FAQ

Which tour should I choose first?

Tour A is a great first choice, featuring El Nido's iconic lagoons and beaches.

Do I need cash?

Yes. Bring Philippine pesos for optional rentals, tips, purchases, and applicable entrance fees.

Are tips appreciated?

Tipping is entirely optional, any gratuity is greatly appreciated by our crew as a thank-you for their hard work and service.

Can seniors join?

Yes, depending on their health and mobility. Please let us know in advance if any assistance is needed.

Island Tour Policy Guide

*By proceeding with your booking, you agree to comply with the policies and guidelines below.

WEATHER, SAFETY & OPERATOR DISCRETION

- All tours operate only when cleared by the Philippine Coast Guard (PCG) and the Municipal Tourism Office (MTO) of El Nido.
- If the PCG issues a No-Sail Advisory, Typhoon Signal, or Gale Warning, all sea activities are automatically suspended, regardless of weather conditions in certain areas.
- The tour operator reserves the right to delay departure, modify the route, or cancel the tour at any time for the safety of all guests.
- Certain destinations or lagoons may be closed or limited by PAMB/MENRO due to conservation protocols, strong waves, overcrowding, coral spawning, or marine protection measures.
- When closures occur, the operator will reroute to available and approved sites without compromising safety.
- Life jacket must be worn whenever required by the crew or applicable safety regulations.
- All guests must follow all boat crew instructions, especially during docking, snorkeling, swimming, and island entry.
- The operator may deny a guest's participation if safety rules are not followed.
- Please inform our team in advance of any medical conditions that may affect your participation in boat travel, swimming, or snorkeling.
- Tour routes and destinations may be adjusted, restricted, or replaced depending on wave conditions, weather, sea conditions, and local regulations.
- Replacement destinations will follow the official LGU-approved alternative sites.

HEALTH & SAFETY REQUIREMENTS

Mandatory Life Jacket Use

Guests must wear life jackets at all times while the boat is moving, during deep-water activities, or as instructed by the crew.

Medical Conditions Disclosure

Guests must inform the agency of any medical conditions (e.g., heart issues, asthma, recent surgeries, severe allergies, pregnancy). Failure to declare medical issues may waive liability.

Participation Restrictions for illness

Guests experiencing fever, vomiting, diarrhea, or any contagious condition must not join the tour for safety and hygiene reasons.

Bring Personal Medication

Guests must bring their prescribed medicines (e.g., antihistamines, inhalers, maintenance meds). Crew cannot dispense medication, only assist.

Hydration & Heat Protection

Guests must stay hydrated and apply sun protection.

Personal Safety in the Water

Guests must not swim beyond designated areas, especially during strong currents, tides, or weather changes.

REFUND & CANCELLATION POLICY

Guest-Initiated Cancellation

-24 hours before tour: Refund allowed (minus transaction fees).
-Less than 24 hours: No refund.
-No-show on tour day: No refund.

Rescheduling by Guest

Allowed once, subject to availability. Price may change based on season or tour availability.

Weather-Related Cancellations (Force Majeure)

If the tour is cancelled due to:
-Coast Guard advisory
-Safety advisories from the LGU
Guest may choose:
1.Full refund 2. Reschedule to another date

Boat or Operator-Initiated Cancellation

If the agency cancels for operational reasons (boat issues, safety, staff emergency):
-Guest may choose a 100% full refund or may reschedule, subject to the applicable policy.

Partial Refunds (Activity Restrictions)

If certain stops are closed due to weather or LGU order, but the tour proceeds:
-No full refund
-Partial refund may be given only if the fee was exclusively for the restricted site (e.g., lagoon fee).

Refund Processing Time

-Refunds are generally processed within 3–7 business days, depending on the bank or e-wallet provider.

Non-Refundable Items

-ETDF or government-collected fees
-Add-ons already used (kayak rental, gear rental, etc.)
-Payment processing charges

RESCHEDULING POLICY

Rescheduling Cut-Off Time – By 10pm on the previous night.

-Guests may request to reschedule up to 10:00 PM the night before.
-Any rescheduling request made from 10:01 PM onwards will not be accepted.

No Arrival by 09:00 AM = No Show

-Guests who do not arrive at the meet-up point by 09:00 AM are automatically marked as NO SHOW.
-No-show guests are not eligible for refunds or rescheduling.

Advance Rescheduling (Day Before Tour)

-Guests may reschedule their tour at least 1 day before the tour date, subject to availability.
-Requests made on the day of the tour follow the 10 PM rescheduling deadline.

One-Time Free Rescheduling

-Guests are allowed one (1) free reschedule, provided the request is made by 10:00 PM the night before.
-Additional rescheduling may incur fees.

Rescheduling Due to Health or Personal Reasons

-Health or personal issues will still follow the 10PM cut-off unless supported by an emergency medical document.
-Approval is at the operator's discretion.

Late Arrival Policy

-Guests arriving after 9:00 AM will not be accommodated for safety and operational reasons.
-The boat cannot delay departure beyond the allowed time due to Coast Guard and LGU operational limits.

Group Bookings

-For group bookings, late or absent individuals will be considered no-show, and the tour will proceed with the present guests.
-Rescheduling applies to the entire booking, not per guest.

Weather-Related Exceptions

-If rescheduling is required due to Coast Guard advisory or operator decision, the 10PM rule does not apply, and guests may choose reschedule or refund.

Communication Requirement

-Guests must notify the agency via call, SMS, or chat if they need to reschedule.
-Messages sent after 10:00 PM will be recorded but not honored for same-day rebooking.

Non-Refundable Conditions

-No-show
-Late arrivals (after 9 AM)
-Failure to request rescheduling before the cut-off
